

Corporate Governance

Photocure ASA the (“Photocure” or the “Company”) has made a strong commitment to ensure trust in the Company and to enhance shareholder value through effective decision-making and improved communication between the management, the board of directors and the shareholders. The Company’s framework for corporate governance is intended to decrease business risk, maximize value and utilize the Company’s resources in an efficient, sustainable manner, to the benefit of shareholders, employees and society at large.

The Company will seek to comply with the Norwegian Code of Practice for Corporate Governance (the “Corporate Governance Code”), last revised on 30 October 2014 and available at the Norwegian Corporate Governance Committee’s web site www.nues.no, to the extent not considered unreasonable due to the Company size and stage of development. The principal purpose of the Corporate Governance Code is to ensure (i) that listed companies implement corporate governance that clarifies the respective roles of shareholders, the board of directors and senior management more comprehensively than what is required by legislation and (ii) effective management and control over activities with the aim of securing the greatest possible value creation over time in the best interest of companies, shareholders, employees and other parties concerned.

The Company is subject to reporting requirements for corporate governance under the Accounting Act section 3-3b as well as Oslo Børs “Continuing obligations of stock exchange listed companies” section 7. The board of directors will include a report on the Company’s corporate governance in each annual report including an explanation of any deviations from the Corporate Governance Code. The corporate governance framework of the Company is subject to annual reviews and discussions by the board of directors.
